

For Immediate Release

The City of Dunkirk Youth Bureau recently received a $4,000 grant from the Northern Chautauqua Community Foundation for its annual Summer Camp at Camp Gross. Dunkirk's summer camp at Camp Gross hosts nearly 300 children each year. Children get to spend a week of fun filled outdoor activities such as swimming, nature hikes, and arts and crafts.

This grant was made possible through generous community-minded donors who have established community benefit funds at eh NCCF. Founded in 1986, the NCCF is committed to improving the community through the promotion of local philanthropy, strategic grant making and community leadership. The organization has distributed over 9.5 million dollars in the form of grants and scholarships within the community. Truly community in nature, the NCCF is an organization created by and for the people of northern Chautauqua County. For more information, visit www.nccfoundation.org, or call 716-366-4892.

Camp sign-ups begin on Monday, June 1. If anyone wishes to sponsor and "Send a Kid to Camp" should contact the Youth Bureau at 366-9886. Stay tuned to Dunkirktoday.com and on facebook; City of Dunkirk Youth & Recreation for more details.
