DEPARTMENT OF YOUTH & RECREATION

EJECTION POLICY

LEAGUE PARTICIPANT PERSONAL BEHAVIOR REGULATIONS:

A. Any league participant (player/coach/manager) who is ejected from a game by a game official or facility supervisor will receive a one (1) game suspension (that being the following scheduled game), plus a $30.00 fine payable by the individual prior to his continued participation in Recreation sponsored activities. In basketball, two (2) technical fouls result in an ejection.

B. The second time a participant is ejected from a game in one season; he/she receives a $30.00 fine and a three (3) game suspension (that being the three (3) following scheduled games/playoffs).

C. The third time a participant is ejected from a game in one season; he/she receives a $30.00 fine and is suspended from all Recreation sponsored leagues and event for one (1) full year.

If a player gets ejected in his/her season finale, the one (1) game suspension will carry over to the next activity.

The Youth & Recreation Board has jurisdiction, and can determine punishment over any fight or physical altercation that takes place outside of the playing area, including, but not limited to fans fighting.

The Dunkirk Recreation Department will not tolerate physical or verbal abuse towards its staff and game officials, or fighting between participants. Those participants who choose not to follow league rules and regulation will be punished and banned from participation if necessary. Our leagues are only successful if individual sportsmanship and fair play exists at all times.
